

Sixth and Last Day.

Yesterday closed the Second Annual State Fair. For a week past Reno has been a kind of 4th of July jubilee. All who possibly could have put away the cares of life and devoted themselves to the pleasures of the hour. All their "Sunday harness" was pulled out, and they gave themselves up to the festivities incident to the occasion. The amount of business done during the week has been tremendous. All seemed to have money and none were afraid to circulate it. But few fights have been noted, and none of them serious. Drunks, of course, have been numerous, while poker, monte, etc., has had its time too. Several large games have been running during the week and considerable money changed hands. Yesterday the streets looked rather deserted, for nearly all were down to the track seeing the $2,000 race, which was contested by such noted horses as Defiance, May Howard, Geo. Treat and Gold Note, each of which have big records. Dyer's Hall, too, took many from the streets, to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin" played for the last time. But after the races were over and the theatre out the streets were a perfect jam, and last evening Reno was a sight to behold.

Without a doubt the Fair has been a success. The people of Reno have been uniformly courteous, and the charges have been reasonable. No such disgraceful proceedings in the way of charging have been made here as always characterizes California's State Fair. Here the advance over regular rates has been little, if any, and no doubt the people of the entire State will carry with them the remembrance of this and return next year with a large reinforcement. In another year Reno will have increased so much in size that it will accommodate many more. This year she has been full to overflowing, and hundreds have left on the V. & T. trains to find lodgings in Steamboat, Carson and Virginia, not being able to get them any nearer. The weather has been all that could be wished. No wind, temperate as to heat, and well just all that any could ask for. The racing has been extra good and attended daily by large multitudes. The Pavilion display, though not very extensive, has been of such a character as to attract large crowds to witness it. The two theaters have been filled every night with appreciative audiences. In passing we may say that these have been important features of the Fair and have added not a little to the general entertainment and success of the occasion, as it provided a place for all to spend their evenings. The Managers of the Fair deserve great credit for the manner in which everything has been conducted. They have done all they possibly could to make it a complete success and that they have succeeded the universal verdict of all will attest.

And now that Fair week is over it is time for all to settle down to the solemn realities of business life and not go on another "bust" until Christmas week. Special license for just a little "fastness" may serve those who have enjoyed the week hugely, but now even that is removed and business is business. So lay aside all foolishness and act just as if you realized that the next Fair was a year away. Several of you, no doubt, will wake this morning with heads like tubs upon your shoulders, and will repent in sackcloth and ashes. In fact we expect it will be like it always is the first week in January—every body resolves to reform and stick to it for a week or so. Well as we before remarked the Fair is over and the prosy, commonplace things of life are upon us.

The races yesterday were very good. May Howard was the favorite throughout the trotting race, and won it in three straight heats. Time 2:31, 2:32½, 2:35½. Geo. Treat took second money and Gold Note third. Defiance was distanced in the last heat.

The consolation purse was won by Echo in 3:51.

There was also a dash of a mile between Kafel and Gallinipper, which was won by the former.

Then Washoe and Sheldon started for a mile and repeat and Sheldon was distanced. Time 3:04.

Then American Boy, Jim Cooke and Dick were entered for a trot, best two in three. Boy won both heats, Cooke second, Dick distanced.

PORTER-HOUSE STEAK.—This term has an American origin. In 1814, a hungry pilot entered a New York porter-house on Pearl street, where lunch as well as drink could be obtained. Morrison, the keeper, had nothing but the beef ordered for the next day's family dinner, in the shape of a surloin roasting-piece, and from this he offered the pilot a cut which he accepted. After ravenously devouring it, he turned to his host, who was expecting dissatisfaction, with the order, "Messmate, another steak like that." After having finished his steaks and porter, the old pilot ordered his steaks to be "cut off the roasting-piece for the future," and his companions learned the good that lies in the "small loin steak," and Morrison was obliged to instruct his butcher to cut his sirloins into steaks for his customers, and the butcher, ordering his subordinates and messengers, designated them as "porter-house steaks," and increasing custom and extended repute soon established the term now so common in all eating houses in our country and England.

REVERDY JOHNSON'S CONCLUSIONS.—Reverdy Johnson has written a letter to the New York Tribune, on the currency. The following are the conclusions which he reaches:

First. That the only currency known to the Constitution is gold and silver, or paper convertible into gold or silver on demand.

Second. That nothing but gold and silver can be made a legal tender.

Third. The Government now being perfectly safe, no danger threatening it or being apprehended, Congress has no power to authorize the issue of an irredeemable currency, and to make it a legal tender. This is the clear meaning of Judge Strong's opinion.

Fourth. That the credit of the nation, the true, permanent prosperity of every class of our citizens, and the arrest of the demoralization consequent upon the present state of things, demand as speedy a return as practicable to specie currency.

SINCE 1867 the heathen in California have consumed 6,980 boxes of opium at a cost of $2,421,735. During the years between 1867 and 1870 the amount fell off steadily, but since the latter date it has grown to an enormous figure. Opium is the Chinese substitute for rum, and, if the charge of certain physicians is true, the prohibitory legislation of New England introduced its extended use into the Eastern as well as the Western States.

SAN FRANCISCO will have this fall a collection of the fastest runners and trotters in the world. Springbok, Wild Idle, Rutherford, Katy Pease, and several other Eastern runners, besides a few California horses that will not be last in the race by any means. Budd Doble will soon be here with Occident, Goldsmith Maid, Clementine, St. James and Nelly Wright.

SARCASM.—Nasby is writing some splendid satires on the inflation business. He deals stunning blows at the published money in his letters. The letters are very entertaining. He now signs himself "Late President of the Unlimited Trust and Confidence Company." He has been in the banking business, but has "busted." Those letters wield a mighty influence.

THE BOARD of Equalization of Eureka county, has accepted $6,000 per mile from the Railroad Company, in preference to a law suit, and the chances of getting more. The Company submitted to a raise of $15,000 on personal property in that county.

INSTEAD of having an insurance of $350,000 on his life, as reported, ex-President Johnson had none. During his presidency he was offered policies by several companies gratis, but refused them all.

Alarming Death Rate Among Vicksburg Editors.

It may be true, as sometimes stated, that the pen is mightier than the sword; but it is evident that at Vicksburg, Mississippi, at least, the pistol, with its modern improvements, has a little the advantage of the pen. The statement having been made that four of the editors of the Vicksburg Herald had been killed in as many months, the Herald says that is nothing to the mortality in the office of its contemporary, the Vicksburg Sentinel, which had five of its editors killed and then died itself. It enumerates: "Dr. James Hagan, the first on the list, was killed in a street encounter by the late Gen. D. W. Adams; Walter Hickey, another, was killed opposite Vicksburg in a duel with the late Richard Hammet, who was a journalist himself, and the editor of the Whig; two others, John Jenkins and W. D. Roy, were killed in the streets of the city." But, according to his own confession, the editor of the Herald exchanged shots many years ago with Dr. Hagan, the first named of the above list, and received a bullet in his body from the doctor's weapon, and subsequently had an affair of honor with Col. Isaac M. Partridge, the editor of the Whig, and sent the Whig man off with a broken leg.

HOW THEY VOTE OUT IN UTAH. The Mormon women vote, but very few understand why, for the Mormon dare not vote against the Mormon ticket, and hence all freedom of franchise is blotted out. It is a fact that many Mormons have been cut off from the church for voting the Gentile ticket. Every ticket is numbered, and the voter's name bears the same number, which effectually reveals just how he votes. When the polls close, the ballots are not counted by the inspectors of elections, but are sent sealed to the Probate Judge, who, with the County Clerk, counts them at his leisure, and in some weeks announces the result. Of course, under such a system, the church can always win. A gentleman who saw it tells me that, a few years ago, at Parowan, he saw John D. Lea cast 350 votes, standing at the polls over an hour to do it. He voted for all his wives, his 64 children, his 100 grandchildren (124 now) and all his known and possible relations. Another man, last year, voted the ballots of his three wives and six children, and for two then unborn, but soon expected.

Gold in New York yesterday.....117 1/2

JOKE.—Yesterday while W. R. Chamberlain was at the track some friends of his put up a job on him. One of them went and bought a pick-handle and wrote these words in large letters upon it, "The next man who leaves without paying his bill dies, (signed) W. R. Chamberlain." The "dies" was underlined several times. This was then hung so that all who came from the dining room might see it. We noticed several frantically thrust their hands into their pockets to see if they had the "spondulix to liquidate" with. No one killed at last accounts from the front.

Restling.

Restling.—Yesterday morning several buck Indians were around trying to get white men to lend or give them $200. They wanted to pay McWinnemucca's fine. It will be remembered that week before last he was sentenced to pay $200 for shooting at a man in Verdi. In default of that sum he is now engaged in boarding it out at the rate of $2 a day. His friends are anxious to get him free, hence their earnestness in their appeals to the whites. We believe their success was very indifferent, indeed, though two of them tried to excite sympathy by weeping.

SMASH UP.

SMASH UP.—Friday morning, a freight train, No. 5, was coming along the track the train broke in two, and the consequence of this was that nineteen cars piled themselves together in rather a promiscuous manner. A wrecking train was brought into action and the damage soon repaired. No one hurt. Yesterday as freight train, No. 8, was passing near Clark's Station a defective rail gave way and nine cars were ditched badly. The track was torn up and the cars more or less demoralized. No one hurt. Damage repaired as soon as possible.

WORK at the Prison goes bravely on.

WORK at the Prison goes bravely on. Several large teams are constantly engaged in hauling boulders from the quarry north of town, while large quantities of cut rock is being sent from Carson City. The walls of the Prison are slowly but surely rising.

No Church.

No Church.—There will be no services at the Episcopal Church (Court House) to-day, owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Lucas, who has a severe attack of bilious colic. No serious result is anticipated from his illness. Sunday school as usual.

PIPER'S OPERA HOUSE COMPANY.

We think that Mr. Piper ought to be fully satisfied that the inhabitants of Reno, and visitors from all portions of the State, fully appreciate the great merit of his excellent company. Again last night, Dyer's Hall was crowded, to witness the representation of Shakespeare's Tragedy of Macbeth, with G. D. Chaplin in the title role. The gentleman's rendition of this most difficult creation of the Bard of Avon, was equal to any we have ever seen, his reading of the part was perfect, although somewhat different in many passages to what we had been accustomed, his acting throughout was good. Never shall we forget the Lady Macbeth of Jean Clara Walters, it was something so weird and heart-stirring, that it made our blood run cold. Although we have always admired this lady's playing in every part she has played during the past week, yet we had never seen her act. In tragedy Miss Walters is truly great, and those who failed to be present to witness Macbeth last night, have cause for regret. The Macduff of Mr. Ashton, was a very fine piece of acting, fully sustaining his character as a finished actor. The whole of the company were in the caste and fully proved their ability to grapple with Shakespeare, as easily as with modern authors. To-night "The Streets of New York," will be presented with G. D. Chaplin, in his great character of Badger. This will be the last opportunity to witness the performance of the Opera House Company. Let there be a full house.

HEBREW FESTIVAL.

HEBREW FESTIVAL.—Yesterday the business houses occupied by our Jewish brethren were closed. According to their custom they observed the fast of Yom Kipur—the Day of Atonement. On this occasion the children of Israel fast from sundown on the 9th until the first star appears on the evening of the 10th.

RENO OPERA HOUSE.

RENO OPERA HOUSE.—The success of this new Theater is an acknowledged fact. The McGinleys have met with good house all the week, and propose to give another entertainment this evening. "Cousin Joe's Visit" and "Masquerade Ball" are the pieces for this evening. It is needless to say they will do them justice.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The following gentlemen have been summoned by U. S. Marshal Clapp to serve as jurors at the U. S. Circuit Court which meets in Carson on Tuesday: C. H. Eastman, W. L. Ross, B. B. Norton, E. C. Sessions, Peleg Brown and F. Lemmon.

PREMIUMS.

PREMIUMS.—Of the thorough-bred cattle that took premiums at the State Fair of Nevada, the following were imported by Saxe Brothers: Best two-year old bull; best one-year old bull; best sweepstake bull; best bull and four heifers, and the best two-year old heifer.

WANTED.

WANTED.—Now that the Fair is over we move that we have a little rain for a change. The dust is extensive, offensive and dirty, and Nature needs a little refreshing. Who seconds the motion?

POSTPONED.

POSTPONED.—The sale of the delinquent Consolidated Poe stock was to have taken place yesterday, but owing to the Fair it was thought best to postpone it until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

In 1328 the Mediterranean Sea was entirely frozen over.

In 1328 the Mediterranean Sea was entirely frozen over. In 1420 Paris experienced so great cold that it was depopulated. In 1469 wine was frozen so hard in France and Germany that it was cut into blocks and sold by weight. Wine-coolers—if they had been invented then must have depreciated in value that year. In 1603 cattle froze in their stalls, and the Seine could be crossed by heavy carts. In 1709 mass was not said for many weeks in certain provinces, so it is stated, because the wine could not be kept in a fluid state. The winter of 1740 was one of extreme rigor in Russia, and the famous ice palace was constructed at St. Petersburg; 1765 and 1788 were years of intense cold throughout Europe, and in 1870 the mercury fell to six degrees below zero in Paris.

JOHN SUNDERLAND STILL AHEAD.

JOHN SUNDERLAND STILL AHEAD.—John Sunderland has just returned from San Francisco with the largest and best selected stock of boots and shoes ever brought to Reno. He has goods to suit all prices and all people. He has a fine assortment of children's school shoes, which give more satisfaction than any shoe ever brought to this town. He is selling boots and shoes at panic prices. Call at his store and examine for yourself. He has also on hand and for sale, a fine assortment of shoemaker's findings, which he offers to the trade at a small advance over San Francisco prices.
